County schools get energy grant

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
The Hancock County School District received notification of a $9,944 grant Friday from the Department of Energy.

These funds will be matched by area funds to continue energy conservation measures at the various schools in the district.

New lighting for the Charles B. Murphy and Hancock North Central gymnasiums and for the main building at HNC will be funded with this grant.

"The work being completed with these funds will drastically cut our energy costs," Assistant Superintendent James Pair said.

Work funded from previous grants includes lighting in Hancock Elementary, the vocational-technical shop at HNC, Gulfview Elementary gymnasium and an energy control management system.

Pair said local funds spent for this work will be completely recouped.

16th section land reforestation bill approved Wednesday

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Legislation signed this week will qualify the Hancock County School District for $158,000 in funds for reforestation of 16th section lands over the next few years.

Signed by Governor Bill Allain Wednesday this senate bill will provide funds to put nearly 64,000 acres throughout the state in full production by 1995.

District Superintendent Terrell Randolph said Friday he had just received the bill and had not analyzed it yet to see what immediate effect this would have in the district. Randolph also said he did not know at this time exactly how many acres of 16th Section Land were being used as timberland.

According to Dick Molpus, Secretary of the State, the projected benefit from the now unproductive acres will be $80 million over the next 30 years.

Molpus also said the legislation will also benefit the other 300,000 acres of 16th Section forest lands that are productive by insuring the availability of funds for maintenance and improvement of those timberlands.

"Once in place this renewable resource will provide self-perpetuating funds as well as money for other local school needs," Molpus said.

Senate Bill 2190 represents a far-sighted piece of legislation that will move the state a long way toward funding future needs in education, he added.

An estimated $600,000 will be spent yearly on 16th section lands for timberland development.

"For the first time, the school districts will be able to expect enough money to put all of their forestry land into full production," Molpus said.

"In 30 years, it is anticipated that $80 million in timber production will have resulted. I consider this an extremely positive way of resolving the problems of achieving maximum productivity from our land and insuring a fairly stable long-term funding source so that our plans can be completed," he concluded.

The bill was introduced by Senator Cecil Mills from Wayne County.

Beachfront festival scheduled for June 1

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
The annual Bay St. Louis Beachfront Festival will be Sunday, June 1 from 12 noon until 7 p.m. in the downtown area.

The festival will follow a similar format as in the past years but one major change planned is the location of the stage.

Festival Chairman Pat Murphy said this year the stage will be located on the beach adjacent to the seawall at the beginning of Main Street.

"This will allow people to sit on the grass around the stage and will also prevent Main Street from being blocked," he added.

Highlights of this year's event include a 5K run, a bicycle race, an antique auto show, a display of old photographs taken in Bay St. Louis and a Bikini Contest.

The festival will also feature live entertainment provided by Guitar Bo and Mrs. Dee, Keith Hoda and The Country Sounds, Juke Jumpers and Jerry Fisher and the new Dock of the Bay house band.

Water district hearing set Monday

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors will hold a public hearing Monday to obtain comments on a proposed water management district.

The hearing will begin at 10 a.m. in the upstairs board room of the Hancock County Courthouse.

The proposed district will include both Hancock and Harrison counties and will be known as Gulf Coast Water Management District.

has been planned and more than 50 exhibitors are expected, Murphy said.

The festival is growing every year and crowds last year were estimated around 10,000, he said.

Murphy added that booth space is available.

For additional information contact Pat Murphy, 864-7731 or Chuck Benvenuti or Kay Johnson, 467-1402.

"This is a family event and we want everyone to come out and enjoy the festival," Murphy said.

The festival is sponsored annually by the downtown businesses in Bay St. Louis.

Chamber's Morning Edition set May 1

The County Unit System will be topic of discussion at the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's Morning Edition Thursday, May 1, beginning at 7 a.m. at the Bay Senior High cafeteria.

Featured speakers for the event will be James B. Heidel and G. B. "Red" Beard.

Heidel served as county administrator under the unit system for Bolivar County for 10 years. He currently serves as executive vice president of the Vicksburg-Warren County Chamber of Commerce and Economic Development Foundation.

Beard served as mayor of Forest from 1973-1977, is a registered civil engineer and presently serves as executive director of the Mississippi Concrete Industrial Association.

State Senator Gene Taylor and State Representative Walter J. Phillips will also participate in the meeting.

All chamber members and their guests are urged to attend.

Welfare director cites need for foster parents

By ELLIS CUEVAS

There is a need for more foster parents in Hancock County, Wallace Bradley, Hancock County Welfare director, said in an interview on Friday.

"The state-wide goal of the Welfare Department is to have enough foster homes in each county to place all foster children of that area," Bradley stated.

"The local Welfare director continued, "As you know, Hancock County has serious sewerage problems in many areas. One of the requirements for a foster home is approval by the State Board of Health."

"The sewerage problem eliminates many potential foster parents because they live in areas which are unapproved by the State Board of Health," Bradley added.

Currently Hancock County has 20 foster children placed in 12 foster homes inside the county.

On March 30 there were 48 Hancock County foster children in the county, neighboring counties, group homes, and institutions.

A lengthy procedure is required as well as certain financial abilities in order to become a foster parent, Bradley said.

Families interested in becoming foster parents first have to apply at the Welfare Department.

The next step is to go through a foster home study involving one of the five social workers on the Hancock County staff.

Adoption income to meet their own family requirements in addition to a criminal records check is also involved in the procedure which usually takes up to 90 days.

Final approval has to be made by the regional supervisor after being recommended by the local Welfare Department.

Foster children are usually placed in foster homes with natural children, Bradley allowed.

A home is licensed for a certain number of children in addition to certain ages and sex.

The time of stay with a foster parent may just be one night, a few days, weeks, months, or over a year.

A foster home should be large enough and adequate for the number of children and must meet the community standards, Bradley emphasized.

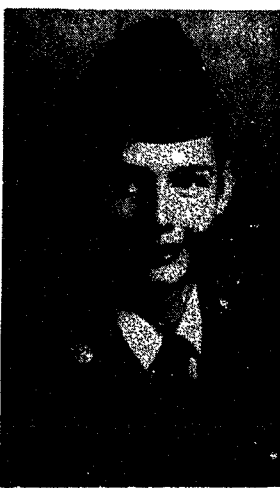

News Brief

COURTHOUSE CLOSED

The Hancock County Courthouse will be closed Monday in observance of Confederate Memorial Day.

All county offices will reopen according to their usual schedules on Tuesday.

Boyer receives West Point appointment

JOHN BOYER

Bay St. Louis teenager John Michael Boyer, 17, recently received his commission to West Point Air Force Academy.

Boyer, who attended Bay Senior High until entering the air force, is currently an honor student in 3775 Student Squadron at the Sheppard Technical Training Center.

Boyer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Boyer Jr. of Waveland.

Recent test scores by Boyer were ranked in the top two percent in the nation.

According to Boyer's mother, the main reason he joined the Air Force was to improve his chances for a commission at West Point. She also said he plans to make the military his career.

Boyer is studying computer repairs and will begin at West Point in July.

Bradley said, "Foster children usually have more needs than a foster parent's natural children."

"Foster parents should not go into the program looking to adopt a child to their family, as our primary goal is to return a child to its own family, as many times their parents' position improves," Bradley added.

Bradley stated, "Adoptions are handled by the Welfare Unit in Jackson."

"On some occasions, foster parents do have a chance of adopting a foster child if everything meets the child's specific needs," Bradley said.

Foster children range from newborns through 18 years of age. They are those who have been removed from their own homes by the court due to neglect, abuse or lack of supervision, Bradley stated.

The director continued, "Some parents of foster children are unable to provide for their child or children because of a lack of finances, and other unforeseen circumstances."

Foster parents receive from $130 to $160 per month per child. The Welfare Department provides medical and some clothing needs.

Bradley finished the interview by saying, "The rewards of being a foster parent is not money, the true reward is the difference it makes in a child's life."

Attorney general's decision results in third election

By DENA BISNETTE

Three elections, rather than two, will be held in Hancock County on June 3.

According to Hancock County Election Commission Secretary Charles Gottschalk, a state attorney general's order has split a special election scheduled for that date into two elections.

In addition to the special election, June 3 is the date set for a Democratic primary that includes several judges' races and a Congressional race.

The special election was originally expected to consist of a county referendum on the unit system, a proposed constitutional amendment dealing with ethics for public officials and a proposed constitutional amendment dealing with reapportionment.

Gottschalk said he received instructions stating that any local referendums should not be on the same ballot with the amendments on Friday.

He said he immediately contacted the Secretary of State's office and learned that there may be federal objections to the proposed amendments.

Since the anticipated objections may require that the amendments be cleared through the US Department of Justice and could delay implementation of any accompanying local referendums, separate ballots and ballot boxes will be required, Gottschalk explained.

Because the county has only enough voting machines for two elections, the primary and the amendments will be on machine ballots and the referendum will be on paper ballots.

The Hancock County Election Commission has agreed to assist the county's Democratic Executive Committee in the June 3 primary and will meet Tuesday to decide how the third election will affect current plans.

The joint effort is expected to save on the cost of having three elections—one democratic primary and two special elections—on the same day, Charles Gottschalk said.

Each election will require the use of separate signature books, pollbooks, ballot boxes and voting stands.

Precincts will be the same as for any countywide election.

The joint effort will reduce the number of pollworkers per precinct to six, only one more than needed for a single election.

However, an additional four to six people will be needed to help count votes after the polls close.

The additional six people will cost about $500. An election normally costs about $10,000, but about $14,000 was anticipated as total cost for two elections after the number of pollworkers was reduced.

Gottschalk said the commission's Tuesday meeting may result in additional cost-cutting measures.

"The election commission believes this will be one of the most difficult elections to hold that we have ever seen in Hancock County, and we will need the full cooperation of the voters in this effort," he added.

Gottschalk also said that Hancock County is not the only one in the state with three elections on June 3. Some counties with Republican parties that are active enough to require a primary could have as many as four elections on that day.

The Democratic Executive Committee and the election commission are jointly providing five training sessions for prospective pollworkers for the three June 3 elections.

They are scheduled for May 14 at Hancock North Central School, May 16 at Gulfview School in Lakeshore, May 19 at Kiln Community Center, May 21 at Waveland Library and May 23 at Hancock County Courthouse.

All sessions begin at 7 p.m. and prospective pollworkers may attend any one of the five.

Early shrimping season opening date possible

The Commission on Wildlife Conservation/Bureau of Marine Resources released information that due to the reports furnished by the marine biologists of the Bureau of Marine Resources, shrimp season may very well have an early opening date this year. The Fisheries Division of the Bureau of Marine Resources is finding that there is a large number of post larvae found in their recent samplings.

According to Dr. Richard L. Leard, director of the Bureau of Marine Resources, the shrimp season opened earlier last year than any other time in the last 25 years. Dr. Leard said that "the season, may very well be opening even earlier this year."

Dr. Leard added that information had been received from the State of Louisiana, that possibly shrimp season would open in that state as early as May 6 or 10. This will be decided during a meeting to be held on May 2 following a public hearing the previous day.

For information contact Bureau of Marine Resources or Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries.

Service to blind expanded

The Radio Reading Service of Mississippi for blind and print-handicapped persons will expand its broadcast schedule beginning Monday, May 5.

RRSM will be broadcasting from 7:55 a.m. until midnight, weekdays, and from 6 a.m. until midnight, weekends.

New additions to the RRSM readings will include Newsweek, Fortune, Esquire, American Health, the Christian Science Monitor and the Sunday edition of the New York Times.

To receive the service, a person should be blind or print-handicapped, that is, the person has a physical disability that impedes readings, such as the inability to turn pages.

These blind and print-handicapped listeners need a special "fixed-crystal" receiver to hear the RRSM broadcasts, which are carried on a special sub-channel of PRM. Listening to the service is free, but the receivers cost $85 each.

Those who are able to pay are asked to do so, and contributions are being solicited for those who cannot. Application forms for the receivers are available from RRSM: Universities Center, 3825 Ridgewood Road, Room 152, Jackson, MS 39211.

On Thursday morning the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's Morning Edition will involve several speakers on the unit system.

The event is scheduled to begin at 7 a.m. and will be held at Bay High's cafeteria.

A former county unit system engineer and a former State Aid Road Program engineer are scheduled to give their views on the unit system.

Hancock County's qualified electors will go to the polls on June 3 and decide whether they want to change the county's operation to a unit system.

It is important for as many persons as possible to attend this meeting Thursday morning.

Even though it is a chamber function, the public is urged to attend.

Hancock Insurance Agency is the sponsor for the Morning Edition.

We hope to see Bay High's cafeteria with an overflow crowd.

The March of Dimes 'Jail and Bail' appeared to be a lot of fun for many folks, especially those seeing others going to 'jail'.

I was one of the 'arrestees' and I am still investigating as to who the culprit was who had me charged with 'cruelty to employees.'

The 'judge' must have thought the 'crime' serious as he fined me $750.

Thanks to The Sea Coast Echo's employees and Rotary Club members I was able to raise most of my bail, even if I had to make myself look like an 'idiot'.

I felt sorry for one elected official who was 'fined' $600 for being good to his employees, especially when the next politician, whom I won't name (but he did play basketball), received only a $225 'fine'.

One county official couldn't get enough bail together before someone else would have him arrested again.

He was a very good sport. The only clue I will give you as to who he was is the fact that pizza is his native dish, and he really enjoyed lunch in 'jail'.

Another political 'arrestee' received special favors, as he was delivered to 'jail' by his Harrison County counterpart in a limousine.

It is our understanding the March of Dimes 'Jail and Bail' was a success.

All of this was because of the participation of everyone, those 'arrested' and those who made pledges to get them out of 'jail'.

Members of the American Legion Auxiliaries will be selling Poppies for the next week.

It is hoped many will make contributions to the Poppy promotions as the monies are used for some very worthy causes.

News From The Governor's Office

Gov. Bill Allain

FINAL EFFORT TO GAIN HIGHWAY FUNDS FAILS

During the final two days of the 1986 Legislature, a number of people made an effort to recapture $11 million for very seriously ailing state budgets. The $11 million would have come from the Highway Department, representing less than 5 percent of their $436 million budget.

I had proposed placing this money in the budgets of universities, junior colleges, mental health and welfare.

If these recommendations had been accepted by the Legislature, the reduction in these budgets would have meant that universities would have been cut only 9 percent below 1986 figures, instead of the 14 percent cut they received; junior colleges would have been cut only 10.5 percent instead of the 13 percent they received; welfare, only 7 percent; and mental health, only 4.6 percent.

Obviously these funds would have assisted some very important state budgets. We worked very hard with a number of House and Senate members who wanted to see this money going into these essential journeys without approving these additions to these budgets.

The major point of controversy was the nearly one-half billion dollar budget of the Highway Department. If the $11 million had been taken from the Highway Department and placed in other budgets, the reduction would not have jeopardized any federal funds or bonded indebtedness of the department. We asked the highway department to make the same sacrifices being made by other state agencies. In fact, we asked them to make an even smaller sacrifice because most other agencies suffered budget cuts in the range of 12-15 percent this year, while that department was facing only a 5 percent reduction.

Unfortunately, the Legislature went home without agreement and all the agencies involved suffered.

'Jail and Bail' confusing to youngsters

Editor
Bay St. Louis

Dear Sir,
I wish to congratulate the March of Dimes and its participants with their recent "Jail for Bail" campaign.

Because of your dedication and good humor considerable monies were raised for a good cause, however, as a kindergarten teacher and mother of two young daughters, I feel that you may have inadvertently contributed to the confusion of many of our youngest citizens.

How do I explain to my children, or yours, that the arrest of someone they know and trust was just a "joke" used to raise money?

Is this how we want our children to think our law enforcement agencies raise money?

Should they grow up thinking an arrest is a joking matter?

Should we give them the idea that people can "pay" to have someone arrested?

I say "No!" Let us continue to set good examples and teach respect for law and order in our community.

I feel certain that an organization the caliber of March of Dimes will be able to come up with a better idea for future fund raising.

Sincerely,
Connie Spear

Ripple effect of Shuttle tragedy cited

Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Editor,

The astronauts and civilians of the Space Shuttle Flight STS 51 were not the only victims of that terrible catastrophe. The families were not the only ones to suffer from that awful tragedy.

Let me explain. Because of this horrible mess up, hundreds of Martin-Marietta employees are now without employment. I'm not sure how they came about making the lists of who would stay and who would go.

My husband was employed by Martin-Marietta in October of 1982. He received a lot of knowledge about his job and was a real asset to the company. In fact, he received an award for a full year without accident, total safety in 1985.

In November of 1985 he was named The Most Outstanding Facilities Critical Operations Employee of the Month and received an award for this achievement.

He also received The Blue Cup Award in 1986. But, when the ax fell my husband's job and employment were cut.

Other employees (family members of management) with less than two months on the job were not let go. I always thought that seniority, experience, knowledge, and loyalty were the main reasons for an employee to be in high demand. Well, I was mistaken.

I sure would hate to think that all the money and time invested into an individual in schooling and training were wasted time and money. Our country can not afford to waste money with the way the national debt is.

So, you, see, the astronauts and their families were not the only ones to suffer. At least they had insurance and will not have to go on welfare to get by. As for our family we have filed for food stamps and AFDC but, because we are buying the property that our water well is on we are not eligible for either.

Of course I plan to appeal this decision. We haven't had income but that doesn't seem to mean much. I was sure those programs were for those in need but, again I'm mistaken about the ways things are done.

I just had an arterial cervical fusion two months ago and am still under doctor's care until it is well on its way to recovery. Because of no insurance now, I will have to discontinue the visits to see him.

Until my husband starts to receive unemployment (which takes four weeks) we will to the best we can and live on the faith we have in God to supply our needs. He never fails! So, when you say your prayers tonight, remember to pray for us and all the others like us who are now without employment because of favoritism and/or whatever other reason they were laid off. God bless you for listening!

Sincerely,
Alice Foley

OPPORTUNITIES

I remain convinced that state and local governments are better able to deal with the needs of their citizens than is the federal government.

Earlier this year in his State of the Union address, the President spoke of our responsibility to redefine government's role. He said that that role is not to control, not to command, but to help in times of need, and above all, to create a ladder of opportunity to full employment so all Americans can climb toward economic power and justice on their own.

In just this past week, I have been able to report two instances in which the receipt of "seed" money from the federal government will enable us in South Mississippi to create jobs and economic opportunities for our citizens.

The first was the approval by the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) of a conditional commitment for a guaranteed business and industrial loan for the Harrison Lumber Company in Laurel. The company's president, Dan M. Harrison, had asked for the loan guarantee from FmHA in order to obtain from a private lender the working capital and debt refinancing he needed for his lumber mill.

He expects to create 33 new jobs at his mill as a result, and that is good news for folks in Jones County.

South Mississippi's federal-state partnership is furthered with news of the progression of the harbor dredging projects at Gulfport and Pascagoula.

I testified before the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development to ask that that panel include a total of $1.7 million in its funding for 1987 to cover the necessary planning, environmental and engineering work which will precede the dredging of the Gulfport and Pascagoula harbors.

These two harbor projects are very important to the economy, not only of Jackson and Harrison County, but the entire state of Mississippi.

Our harbors contribute to the economy nationwide because of the grain that goes through our grain elevator in Pascagoula, the containerized shipping in Gulfport and the oil activity at Bayou Casotte.

We, of course, are very proud of the Naval activity that is part of the work at Ingalls Shipbuilding in Pascagoula and that will accelerate with the construction of our Naval homeport.

I feel very confident that my request to the committee will be approved. Then the next step will be to begin work.

In Gulfport, this dredging has been a long time coming—about 10 years. And in Pascagoula, we'll eventually have some of the deepest water anywhere in the Gulf of Mexico.

The return on the federal government's investment with these projects will be immeasurable in terms of economic activity and national security. We also can project additional revenues for our state treasury, the creation of new businesses and the expansion of current ones which will be better served by our new resources, and the subsequent creation of jobs for our citizens.

At a time when many are concerned with what the government is not doing for them, the federal government working with our state, our cities and our individual citizens in these two cases is providing opportunities in which we all can share.

Price reduced on meningitis innoculations

Cheaper vaccine may allow more Mississippi children to get protection against Hemophilus influenza b, the most common and potentially fatal form of meningitis.

As of April 1, county health departments statewide reduced the charge for the Hib vaccination from $8 to just $5 per dose. This lower cost reflects savings through the federal contracting system for buying vaccine in large quantities.

Shots for other vaccine-preventable childhood diseases are free at county health departments, but the FY 1986 Department of Health budget did not allow purchase and free distribution of the new vaccine for meningitis. In late 1985, the Medicaid Commission bought 50,000 doses for free distribution to Medicaid children between the ages of 18 months and five years.

Parents of children not on Medicaid must pay cost plus administration. Since county health departments got the vaccine supplies in the fall, only about 4,000 children—about half Medicaid and half paying—patients—have gotten the immunizations.

Health officials worry about the 18,000 high risk children: those in day care centers and those who have a chronic disease, problems with their physical immune system—sickle cell anemia or leukemia, for example—or who have undergone kidney transplants.

Ideally, every child should be immunized against Hemophilus influenza b meningitis at age two. Health experts do not recommend vaccination for children younger than 18 months or older than five years.

Despite its name, Hemophilus influenza b vaccine is not a flu vaccine. It is a vaccine against a type of meningitis which infects the covering of the spinal cord and the brain.

"Bacterial meningitis in children is often fatal," said Dr. Ed Thompson, state epidemiologist. "When it is not, it often causes serious neurological damage to the child."

To schedule immunizations, parents may call the county health department.

Common Cause blasts Legislature on attempt to gut Ethics Law

Vowing to fight the newly proposed constitutional amendment on ethics, Common Cause/Mississippi called on all Mississippians who overwhelmingly defeated the last legislative attempt to gut the ethics laws, to turn out in June, 1986. The citizens' lobbying organization predicted that all voters interested in ethical government will vote against "the new profiteering amendment."

Paul M. Neville, spokesman for Common Cause, called the latest amendment a more radical departure from ethical standards than the amendment rejected by voters in 1984. "This new amendment contains the loophole of all loopholes. A legislator can exempt himself from the ethics laws and contract with the state at will simply by avoiding voting on the contract he wants to make with the state."

By trying the ethics laws to "participation" by the public official, the new amendment will make avoidance of the law a simple matter. Politicians at all levels of government will, for the first time in 100 years, be able to contract with their own governmental bodies by simply not voting on that contract.

With only 53 days left before the June election, Common Cause said, "All Mississippians who support ethical government must by word of mouth get the message out that the legislators are up to their old tricks."

Neville charged that there is no doubt that by scheduling the election in June instead of the usual November date, the Legislature is hoping to slip this bad amendment by the voters without full public debate.

"They know this unethical amendment will not stand public scrutiny, so they have purposefully scheduled a quick vote."

Citizens interested in joining the campaign to defeat the proposed amendment may contact Common Cause by writing to 921 North Congress Street, Jackson, MS 39202.

Fish pond management field day scheduled

The Hancock County Soil and Water Conservation District in conjunction with the Soil Conservation Service and the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service has set Thursday at 2 p.m. for the Fish Pond Management Field Day.

Doug Stephens, District Conservation Officer, Lee Taylor, County Agent, and Ronnie Thomas, SCS Biologist, will be present to demonstrate procedures and give tips on pond management.

Things that will be covered include how and where to build a pond; stocking rates; when and how to fertilize a pond; how to rejuvenate an old pond; and aquatic weeds and how to control them.

"If you have a weed problem in your pond and want them identified, bring some of the weeds in a jar. Our biologist will help you with a solution. Come out and join in the Fish Pond Management Field Day," Stephens said.

The site will be on Robert Cooley property, Take Hwy 603 to Firetower Road Junction, go east on Firetower Road until the first log house on the right.

TAKING SAMPLES—Ronnie Thomas, Soil Conservation Service biologist, takes a seine sample from Donald Moran's pond in Catahoula. Thomas will be on hand May 1 at the Robert Cooley Farm in Kiln for a pond management workshop.

Little Theatre seeking on-, off-stage talent

Carol Young, director of the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre production of "Suitehearts," will conduct auditions Monday and Tuesday, 7 p.m., at the playhouse on Boardman Avenue.

Two women and three men are needed. "Suitehearts," by Wm. Van Zandt and Jane Milmore, is a two-act comedy where country comes to the city and comedy and confusion reign in a hotel honeymoon suite.

Two couples and a slick bellhop make up the cast for "Suitehearts". This play promises the same fun and frolic as Mr. Van Zandt's other plays previously presented at the Little Theatre - "Love, Sex, and the IRS" and "Lie, Cheat and Genuflect."

Producer of "Suitehearts," Kierstan Byrd, is also casting backstage help.

Volunteers are needed for set decoration and construction, prompting, props, make-up, and lights and sound.

According to Ms. Byrd,

"Backstage is the backbone of theatre, its the creative outlet for people not interested in appearing on stage. We have a lot of fun and don't have to learn lines!"

Production dates for "Suitehearts" are scheduled for mid-June.

For more information about "Suitehearts" call 467-2121 or 467-4265.

Tigers take district conference titles; battle against Purvis looms for south-state mantle

Special to The Sea Coast Echo
When the dust cleared and the tension eased on a recent clear, beautiful moonlit night in the small town of Vanceave, the Bay High Tiger Baseball Team emerged as conference and district champs.

In a do-or-die battle, the Tigers, after a defeat to the Bulldogs earlier in the season, Bay High, under the direction of coaches Gale McRaney and Billy Power knew what they were facing.

A loss would mean the end of a season for the six senior starters, twins Stace and Trace McRaney, Muta Shabazz, Jeff Smith, Craig Breland and Matt Fairconnetue.

A win for Vanceave would not give them the crown as the Bulldogs were beaten twice by the East Central Hornets, and the Hornets would walk away with the title, courtesy of the loss by the Tigers.

Rather confusing? To make the story even more perplexing, Bay High had beaten East Central twice during the season, but had suffered losses to Stone and the Vanceave Bulldogs, and the conference and district record of East Central would be...

Well, the Tigers rallied:
First inning - Bay High had three men at the plate, and three men out. Shabazz grounded out to the third baseman, Trace McRaney was called out on strikes and Jeff Smith struck out. Vanceave had three people at the plate, the first, Mallette, the lead off batter hit a high pop fly to the centerfield for the first out; Johnson, the second baseman drew a walk, Nelson struck out and baseman to retire the sides.

In the top half of the second inning, Brian Laneaux got on first base by an error by the Bulldog shortstop. Jesse Logan struck out and the second Tiger baserunner, first baseman Craig Breland got on by catcher's interference. Monty Strong was called out on strikes to retire the side and end the first Bay High scoring threat.

The top half of the second inning, Tiger pitcher, Jesse Logan struck out the first batter, centerfielder Mike Fitzgerald grounded out and Mallette, the lead off batter struck out to retire the side and end the inning.

In the third inning, neither the Tigers nor the Bulldogs scored.

Top of the fourth inning, Jeffery Smith hit a single. The next three batters were out, one, two, three.

Bottom of the fourth, the first batter struck out and pitcher Nelson singled. Logan hit Delancey with a pitch for the second base runner on. Then Logan struck out Odom and the right fielder Moss hit a ball to Tiger first baseman Craig Breland who took the unassisted out to end the scoring threat.

To begin the fifth inning, Craig Breland singled and Monty Strong hit a sacrifice bunt advancing Breland. Troy Haynes drew a base on ball, and Muta Shabazz hit a pop fly ball to the second baseman for the second out. Trace McRaney then hit a ball to the right fielder which was bobbled, and the error earned Bay High the two runs.

Bottom of the fifth, Robinson, the first batter up singled and Collom got on by an error to the Tiger second baseman. Fitzgerald singled scoring Robinson. No outs, Mallette grounded out to the pitcher for the first out, then the Tigers got the base runner out for the second out, and the scoring threat was over when Logan struck out Johnson.

Tension began to mount. Brian Laneaux and Jesse Logan were on base after each had singled. Stace McRaney popped up to the center fielder, Breland was called out on strikes and Monty Strong grounded out to the first baseman.

Bottom of the sixth inning, first man up hit a high pop fly to center field for the first out. Bay High pitcher Logan walked the second batter, one base runner on. Odom, the Bulldog first baseman singled, two runners on base, one man out. Vanceave right fielder hit a ball to Jeffery Smith, Tiger shortstop, into a spectacular double play involving Smith, Breland and Strong to retire the side.

To open the seventh and final inning, Matt Fairconnetue came from the Tiger bench to pinch hit and singled for the first base runner on. Shabazz popped out to the left fielder and Trace McRaney singled. Fairconnetue was thrown out going down to second for the second out. Smith went down looking at the third strike to retire the sides.

Set the scene, fans screaming, tension running deep, but Jesse Logan did not get rattled. First man up grounded out to third base, Muta Shabazz made a spectacular running catch in center field for the second out. Logan then almost systematically, struck out the third batter to retire the side and end the ball game.

With an overall record of 13 wins against five losses and eight conference/district wins and two losses, Bay High captured the title.

The play-off series will begin Monday, April 28 at Purvis baseball diamond. Game time will be 3:30 p.m., as there are no lights at the Purvis stadium. Bay High will host Purvis at the Tiger diamond on Wednesday night, April 30 at 6. Should there be a

Clubs, Auxiliaries

American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 139

By Dr. Esther Oschmann
Publicity Chairman

American Legion Auxiliary No. 139 of Bay St. Louis held its meeting at 7 p.m. with Miss Agnes Wilkerson presiding.

Mrs. Lou Wilkerson, Americanism chairman, reported having distributed flags to schools. She has received 116 posters in the "Poster Contest" as well as essays.

The winners of each contest will be reported later.

The Americanism work of the auxiliary includes all activities tending to perpetuate American ideals and to uphold the principles of American Democracy.

Mrs. Wilkerson also reported there will be 20 girls to attend Girl's State this year. The purpose of Girl's State is to provide citizenship training for girls of high school in every constituent Department of the American Legion Auxiliary to afford them an opportunity to live together as self-governing citizens; to inform them about the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities of American Citizenship, in order that they may understand and participate in the functioning of their government; and to help them grasp the meaning of some of the responsibilities which they must assume when they become adults.

Eligibility is limited to any girl in the junior or third year of high school, regardless of whether that year ends in June or February. It is at this educational level which best suits the program. Each girl is expected to return home to complete her high school course and furnish leadership in her school and community.

Mrs. Mattie North is chairman for veterans affairs and rehabilitation and is deputy for the VAVS program at the Gulfport VA Hospital. The veterans affairs and rehabilitation means the complete restoration of the veteran and his family to normal function and adjustment physically, mentally, socially, and vocationally for the fullest possible life compatible with his abilities and disabilities.

Mrs. North includes bringing physical comfort and mental cheer to veterans in the hospital aiding the disabled and handicapped. Mrs. North stays very busy planning ward parties and outdoor picnics for all veterans. Mrs. Lena Cuevas has a party every month entertaining veterans at the Legion post, serving food and playing bingo with a prize for each veteran.

The American Legion Auxiliary has fund-raising projects during the year to help raise money in order to have the parties and picnics for the Veterans. Mrs. Roslyn Weathers made knitted caps, footies, bibs, mittens and lap blankets for the veterans in the VA hospital as well as those in nursing homes.

The volunteers who help with parties and picnics are: Mrs. Phyllis Moran, Mrs. Mattie North, Mrs. Pat Gillan, Hazel Wohlschlegel and her husband Roland, Oris Planchard, Dr. Esther Oschmann, Mrs. Billie Tudury, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Gayout, Agnes and Lou Wilkerson, Mrs. Ursula Farve, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Burns, Mrs. Jeanette Lind, Mrs. Lena Cuevas, Mrs. Mamie Carver, and Mrs. Roslyn Weathers.

This is a very important phase of the American Legion and the Auxiliary. The members of the American Legion Auxiliary No. 139 have nominated Mrs. Roslyn Weathers as "Volunteer of the Year" for the wonderful work she does for the veterans. Dr. Esther Oschmann served lasagna, tossed Italian salad, garlic bread and bread pudding with rum sauce for helping to make quota in membership. Mrs. Beatrice Ladner, Foreign Relations chairman, presented a very fine program on the country of Australia which was selected for study this year.

Foreign Relations is a development of the Pan-American study program which was adopted as a national activity of the American Legion Auxiliary in 1940. This program was designed to encourage improved knowledge of other countries as a step toward better understanding internationally.

Each year a foreign country is studied in Auxiliary Units throughout the United States, and other activities conducted to increase knowledge of the country under study. Each year a special country is selected for study.

By this method the American Legion Auxiliary members become more familiar with the history, customs and conditions of life in that country. This year Australia was selected for study. Mrs. Ladner gave a very interesting talk and showed slides of Australia.

At the National Convention this year a Plaque will be presented to a representative of Australia in recognition of the American Legion Auxiliary's efforts to unite our nations through awareness. This plaque will be mounted and placed in a very special place of honor in Australia.

The members voted to donate to several important charities. They also voted to adopt a POW/MIA for this year.

For nearly every man in World War I who endured the dangers and hardships of camp, ship and battlefield, there was a woman serving at home to help make possible America's victory his wife, mother, daughter and sister. After the war had been won and the men of the armed forces had banded together as "The American Legion" to carry their services to country in peace time, it was more than natural that the women of their families should desire to continue to serve with them.

The result was the formation of "American Legion Auxiliary", the largest and most influential women's organization of its kind in the whole world. The establishment of the auxiliary to the American Legion was provided for by the first National Convention of the American Legion in 1919.

The first National Convention of the Auxiliary was held in Kansas City, Mo. in 1921, at which time the name "American Legion Auxiliary" was adopted. The American Legion Auxiliary has one great purpose, "to contribute to the accomplishment of the aims and purposes of the American Legion."

PRAYER AND EVANGELISM

Mark records, "And in the morning rising up a great while before day, He went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed. And Simon and they that were with Him followed after Him. And when they had found Him, they said unto Him, All men seek for Thee. And He said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for therefore came I forth. And He preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils." (Mark 1:35-39)

One who has a definite place in his life for prayer has that which distinguishes a deeply religious person from all other people. No finer example of this truth can be found than the one which Jesus left for us. He prayed because He felt the need of His Father's help and companionship. When Jesus prayed, He was communing with God, while surrendering Himself unreservedly to all the emotions of divine love. He had love both for the Father and for all mankind. He communed with God so that he might better dedicate Himself to the work which He had undertaken.

The Savior could have prayed upon His couch, but he did not. Instead, He sought a quiet place where he could be alone with His heavenly Father. If the Lord needed to pray, how can we profess to follow Him and live without communion with God? (Hebrews 4:14-16)

Matthew gives a fuller account of this preaching trip throughout Galilee: "And Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of diseases and all manner of sickness among the people. And the report of Him went forth into all Syria: and they brought unto Him all that were sick, holden with divers diseases and torments, possessed with demons, and epileptic and palsied; and healed them. And there followed Him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea from beyond Jordan." (Matthew 4:23-25)

Instead of staying in one place, Jesus sought to arouse the entire country of Galilee. That which the disciples evidently regarded as a large work was indeed small in comparison with the outlook of Jesus. People who understood it is God's will for all people to have an opportunity to hear the gospel will never be satisfied with a single effort, however great, in one place. (Mark 16:15; Colossians 1:23)

Wastewater board approves federal grant application

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Waveland Regional Wastewater Management District will submit its final application for a US Environmental Protection Agency grant for the third segment of a project that will eventually link the Waveland and Bay St. Louis Sewerage systems.

The district board authorized its chairman, John Longo Jr., to sign the final grant application, which is being prepared by David Harndon of Reynolds, Smith and Hills, an engineer firm under contract to the district for the third segment.

The signing is set for Tuesday afternoon.

The grant is expected to provide 75 percent of the funding for the third segment, which consists of improvements at the Waveland treatment plant.

The revised cost estimate for the segment is $4.3 million, Herndon told the board at a special meeting Wednesday.

The grant application will include a revised estimate of the projected cost increase to users of the system.

The board agreed to include the document with a statement that the charges would be subject to change, since board members have not yet reviewed the revised estimates.

The board also approved including the revised figures in an application for a Farmers Home Administration loan that is expected to reduce the district's share of the initial cost of Segment III.

The board will meet again at 6:30 p.m. May 7. Expected to be included in the May 7 meeting is a discussion on proposed design and post design charges for Segment III.

In a previous meeting, the board requested that Reynolds, Smith and Hills provide a proposal for reducing some of those costs.

Longo contended that the costs, recently revised after parts of Segment III were moved to later phases of the program, had been increased more than necessary.

Oyster season closes

The Commission on Wildlife Conservation/Bureau of Marine Resources Thursday reported that all oystering in the waters of the Mississippi Sound within the jurisdiction of the state will cease at sunset on Wednesday.

This means that the taking or harvesting of oysters in Mississippi waters will not be allowed after April 30.

This action is being taken by the commission to assure the reefs within its jurisdiction will not be over harvested this year and that every chance for a good fall harvest will occur.

Dr. Leard also stated that he would remind all commercial fishermen that the last day to buy commercial fishing licenses for the year beginning May 1, 1986 and ending April 30, 1987, will be the last day of this month, the 30th of April, 1986.

He urges all those who have not obtained their license to do so as soon as possible so as not to forfeit their means of making a living as a commercial fisherman.

Blue Jeans Garden Club

Nineteen members of The Blue Jeans Garden Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ray Norton, Waveland, for the group's April meeting and annual plant sale.

Mrs. Shirley Cox, a co-hostess, opened the meeting with a prayer for "Peace and Unity" in the world and the reading of an inspirational poem "Live Today" by Gladys Anderson.

President Jennie Ortis very warmly welcomed into the club new members Mrs. Dot Feahney, Mrs. Annabelle Cox and Mrs. Mabel Ladner. Mrs. Pauline Ockman, guest, was also introduced to the group by President Ortis.

Reporting on the Blue Jeans' Birthday Luncheon and Hat Show were Mrs. Anna Mae Roppolo and Mrs. Norton reminding the ladies the annual affair will be held Thursday, May 15, at the Best Western Restaurant in Gulfport this year. Those ladies who have not made reservations may do so by calling either Mrs. Roppolo or Mrs. Norton as soon as possible.

As usual the much coveted "points and ribbons" will be awarded in several categories of the hat competition.

Another report of interest was on the Special Olympics recently scheduled at NSTL. Ladies volunteering and representing the Blue Jeans were Mrs. Christian Neubig, Mrs. Roppolo, Mrs. Edward Feahney, Mrs. A. M. Thomas and Miss Angela Turnage.

Winners in the various categories judged by membership were: wild, Mrs. Frank Klein; miniature, Mrs. Neubig; horticulture, Mrs. Beverly Coogan; potted, Mrs. Irene Graff and dried, Ms. Beverley Praetorius.

Co-hostess with Mrs. Norton and Mrs. Cox was Ms. Praetorius.

The door prize, a lovely potted plant, was won by Mrs. Feahney.
